

Santo Domingo, October 26, 1962

Dear Arthur:

I thought you and the President might enjoy knowing that the day after the President's speech on Cuba, the leftist-inspired rumors in the streets of Santo Domingo were a) that I had been assassinated and b) that there had been a coup in Washington and Kennedy was no longer President.

This will give you some idea of what this kookie place is like.

Best.

John Bartlow Martin

Mr. Arthur Schlesinger, Jr.,
Special Assistant to the President,
The White House,
Washington.

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

I have asked John Martin to supply the missing element in this story -- i.e., who took over after the coup in Washington?

Arthur Schlesinger, Jr.
